

The background of the entire image is a vibrant scene from Walt Disney World at night. On the left is the large, purple and gold geodesic sphere of Epcot. In the center is the iconic Cinderella Castle, illuminated with lights and surrounded by fireworks. To the right is the Hollywood Tower Hotel, a tall, gothic-style building with a sign that reads "The HOLLYWOOD TOWER Hotel". A monorail train is visible on a track in the middle ground. The sky is dark blue with stars and a shooting star.
